9 MEMBERS AND ONE STUDENT REPRESENTATIVE PRESENT

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

BOARD RECOGNITION - Ms. Pai

Two Columbia HS students, Julie-Ann Destine and Jackie Bryan, worked with Larry Busichio, Director of Student Activities & Athletics and Elizabeth Aaron, Columbia HS Principal, to get a charter for a chapter of the National Honor Society at CHS. The chapter will be able to induct students this spring and it is expected that students in the National Honor Society at CHS will lead a new and broad peer tutoring program connected to the FAST study program. Students Julie-Ann and Jackie originated the chapter.

Matthew Girardi, Columbia High School junior and a member of the CHS student council was awarded the Secretary position at State Student Council - an achievement that has not been awarded to a CHS student since the 1950's.

Columbia High School sophomore, Heather Aliyah Salomon was the winner of the CHS Poetry out Loud Competition and represented the school in a county-wide competition at SOPAC.

Columbia High School junior, Samantha Viqueira, a member of the U.S. Fencing Junior team, won a gold medal at the Junior Pan Ams Championships in Toronto. The U.S. Women's Foil Team defeated Canada, 45-37, in the gold medal final at the Junior Pan Ams.

Jack Woods, a 7th grader at MMS won a gold medal in Paris at the biggest foil fencing Championships in the world. Jack won in the category of 439 elite 14 years and under and was the only American to come back with gold.

The student Mock Trial Team at Columbia High School, led by Social Studies teacher Matt Borkowski, finished second in the Essex County Mock Trial Competition, a distinguished and well-fought for honor against the team from Newark Academy.

Lisa Conrad, Columbia High School Teacher of Art, is currently showing her artwork at The College of Architecture and Design Gallery (CoAD Gallery) in an exhibit called "Four Printmakers...Four Decades." Ms. Conrad is also exhibiting new ceramic work in a group show entitled "The Fire Within Us" at Index Art Center in Newark.

Columbia High School Track Coach Lisa Morgan will be inducted into the New Jersey Scholastic Coaches Association Hall of Fame this year and will also be honored at a luncheon in March.

Kaitlyn Walker, Teacher of Music for the middle schools is officially the principal oboist of the Eastern Wind Symphony based in Princeton NJ. The season consists of 5 concerts and is entitled East Meets West, where they are performing works by both American and Japanese composers. Ms. Walker will also be performing with the Monmouth Symphony Orchestra at the Count Basie Theater performing Tchaikovsky 1st Symphony and his Violin Concerto.

Ellen Weisbord, CHS art teacher, is one of 27 NJ artists selected for the 2015 NJ Craft Arts Annual exhibiting at the Morris Museum from February 12- April 20.

Robert White, the Columbia High School boys' fencing coach, was named NJ Boys Fencing Coach of the Year for 2014 and will be honored at a luncheon in March.

Fine Arts Teachers across the SOMSD are exhibiting artwork at the Pierro Gallery in the art exhibit, "11 Point Perspective."

BOARD ACKNOWLEDGEMENT - Mrs. Wright

The Board of Education acknowledges and extends its thanks and appreciation to:

- Bernadeen Mitchell Ghans for a donation of $1000.00 to the Social Studies Department to enable Columbia High School students to attend the Marion Thompson Lecture Series, 'Curating Black America', one of the oldest, largest and most prestigious Black History Month event in New Jersey.
- Martin Weber, South Orange Middle School teacher, for a donation of historical, biographical and nonfiction books to the South Orange Middle School library for student use.
- Daniel and Judith Ellsworth for a donation of $50.00 to the Tuscan Library.

Mrs. Wright read the retirements.

APPROVAL OF MINUTES

Mr. Eastman declared the minutes of the Executive and Public Sessions of February 2, 2015, Executive Session February 7, 2015 and Executive Session and Special Meeting, February 11, 2015 approved as presented.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MONTHLY UPDATE - Mr. Memoli

Goal 1 Student Learning:

- On for discussion tonight is an update on PARCC Readiness.
- All of our focus schools are submitting assessment data in math and language arts for the cycle 3 review. The members of the regional achievement center will meet with principals to review the status of achieving specific school improvement goals.
- Various innovative projects are taking place across the district, including Virtual Debates at SOMS and Literary Essays for fourth grade students across the district.

Goal 2 Professional Staff:

- A staff developer worked with teachers at Jefferson School on close reading strategies to develop students' ability to analyze text.
- A staff developer worked with K-2 teachers at Seth Boyden and Clinton on writing strategies for our youngest writers. Also Seth Boyden and Clinton Schools the grades 3-5 grade teachers are working with a staff developer on reading workshop strategies and skills.
- Three members of the Preschool committee attended a presentation of a NJDOE approved pre-kindergarten and kindergarten curriculum called "Tools of the Mind" which helps young students develop the skills necessary to access school. We will be inviting them to do a presentation to our preschool staff and other interested parties.

Goal 3 Engagement and Outreach:

- Elementary parent teacher conferences will take place this week. This is a very important opportunity for parents to meet with your child's teacher to learn about all that they are learning and to receive their progress report. Thank you to all of our elementary staff for preparing for these important conferences.
- Presentation about PARCC took place for middle school and elementary families. A letter will go home to all families and staff this evening with further information about PARCC.
- Two Parenting Center events are planned for March, geared towards families of current 5th graders: Getting Ready for Middle School and "Always Changing" 5th Grade Health Film.

Goal 4 Resource Management:

- With the recent snow and bitterly cold temperatures, the facilities department has been very busy responding to heat-related issues and snow removal. Kudos to the custodial staff and maintenance staff for working through the days and nights in response to the snow. Maintenance has also been responding to heating concerns as we have had issues related to the extreme temperatures. We appreciate the cooperation of students and staff, and the understanding of parents,

Susan Barry Teacher	Spoke about the international baccalaureate MMS (IB) Program. Feels that although it has many strengths it is not the solution for the district's current needs.
Ryan Varney MMS Teacher	Also spoke about discontinuing the IB program and concentrating on Maplewood Middle School being a focus school.
George Mauritzen MMS Teacher	Spoke about Maplewood Middle School being a focus school with a lot of struggling learners. Feels the IB program is not a good solution for MMS student needs.
Anna Herstatt MMS Teacher	Feels the IB program does not support struggling learners.
Toi Jackson MMS Teacher/ SO Parent	Spoke about discontinuing the IB program.
Mark Terenzi MMS Teacher	Spoke against the IB Program. Feels it isn't working.
Ryan O'Dell MMS Teacher	Echoed previous statements about the IB program. Mr. O'Dell pointed out that the administrators who supported the program have left the District.
Mary Dugan MMS Teacher	Feels the IB program is a waste of tax payer money.
Joe Viola Maplewood	Spoke in support of the Columbia High School Baseball Program and coaches.
Stephen Tamayo CHS Graduate	Spoke in support of the Columbia High School baseball coaches. Mr. Tamayo credits the coaches for his being able to play college baseball.
Jake Lasofsky South Orange	Spoke in support of CHS baseball coaches Stated that the coaches spend countless hours working to make players the best they can be.
Bill Kraiss Baseball Booster	Also supports CHS baseball coaches and Asks the Board for support of the coaches.
President Ted Brackett Maplewood	Appreciates the work of the CHS baseball coaches.
Mark Stern Maplewood	Would like an independent investigation of CHS baseball program and coaches.
Brian Clark Maplewood	Also requests a full investigation of the situation with baseball coaches.

Marisa Tamayo Maplewood	Spoke about her family's positive experience with the CHS baseball team and coaches. Asks parents to support their children.
Patrick Joyce South Orange	Spoke of son's success on the CHS baseball team and in college baseball.
Adam Joseph Maplewood	Concerned about possible bullying of CHS baseball players and the ongoing investigation.
Tanya Gibson-Clark Parent	Stated that all coaches should be held accountable for how they treat students.
Malcolm Stern CHS Student	Spoke on behalf of current CHS students involved in the baseball program and feels there is favoritism in the program.
Katie Rumley Maplewood	Concerned about the upcoming Partnership for Assessment of Readiness for College and Careers (PARCC) administration.
Elissa Malespina South Orange	Spoke about PARCC and protocols for students who have opted out of testing and requests that students who are not being tested be placed in a different area.
T.J. Whitaker Maplewood Parent and teacher	Acknowledges importance of PARCC testing, but parents should have been informed of their right to opt out.
Andrew Wasden Maplewood	Spoke in support of home-schooled students participating in sports and extracurricular activities.
Hannah Edelman CoAdvisor	Asks the Board to support and fund student council officer Matt Girardi at the National Convention in Albuquerque and Regionals in Upstate New York. Also asks that other students are sent to state student council.
Matt Girardi CHS Junior	States that Columbia High School is full of student leaders. Students who have previously attended nationals have brought back leadership to other students.
Maggie Tuohy SB Parent	Thanked the Board for their support of Seth Boyden School and the community looks forward to working with the board in its efforts to support Seth Boyden School.
Ruth Lovenkron Maplewood Parent	Concerned about the Columbia High School math program. Also asked that the Board reconsiders the IB Program before throwing it out.
Dede Kinerk Parent	Concerned about the District math program and asked the Board to evaluate the program.

Mr. Memoli commented to speakers regarding the baseball program, stating that legal counsel has been instructed to be sure that all athletic coaches and extracurricular activities receive training on bullying and encourages parents to reach out to appropriate staff members if their child is affected.

Board Recessed at 9:43 pm

Board Reconvened at 9:55 pm

Student Report - Ms. Kritzberg

- Ms. Kritzberg asks for support at student performances this month.
- Student forums have been taking place where students meet and talk with others to continue to highlight challenges students are facing at Columbia High School. Students have discussed access to higher level courses and the need to encourage students on all levels. They also discussed disparities in behavior expectations throughout levels.

DISCUSSION

2015-16 Budget - Mrs. Schneider

Mrs. Schneider presented the preliminary 2015-16 school budget development with focus on:

- The budget development process
- Alignment of the budget to district goals
- Budget requests and considerations
- Budget resource assumptions
- Revenue assumptions and historical trends
- Tax levy caps, adjustments and bank cap
- Estimated tax impact

The presentation was followed by a brief discussion among Board members with comments and questions that include:

- Concern about going over the 2% even with enrollment increases.
- Obtaining information regarding PILOTS from both towns.
- Examine how the District is spending money.
- Discontinuing the IB Program.

[Presentation is on file in Board Secretary's office and posted on the district website].

PARCC READINESS UPDATE - Mrs. Grierson

Mrs. Grierson gave an update regarding Partnership for Assessment of Readiness for College and Careers (PARCC). Frequently asked questions will be on the District website after tonight's Board Meeting.

Procedures regarding PARCC testing will be made available. The Board thanks the administration for its swift response in taking feedback from the previous Board meeting and putting the procedures together and communicating these procedures. The Board also thanked staff and testing coordinators for their involvement in preparation for administering the test.

The Opt Out rate for the PARCC is very low. Concerns regarding where to place non-tested and opted out students during the test continue to be discussed.
